DETAILED ACTION

Status of Claims

1. Claims 13-14, 33-34, 56-57 and 80-81 have been canceled in the amendment filed 08 January 2001. Claims 1-12, 15-32, 35-55, 58-79 and 82-89 were previously canceled. Claims 90-97 have been canceled in the amendment filed 21 June 2001. Thus, claims 98-108 are the only claims that remain pending.

Double Patenting

2. Claims 98-108 of the present application were provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 46-55 and 58, respectively, of copending Application No. 09/166,267. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other. However, since the only rejection remaining in the present application is the provisional double patenting rejection, examiner is withdrawing the provisional double patenting rejection in the present application and allowing this application to issue as a patent. However, a double patenting rejection in application no. 09/166,267 will be maintained. See MPEP 804(I)(B).

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 98-108 are allowed over the prior art of record.

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

As per claims 98, 99 and 108, the closest prior art of record (U.S. Patent No. 5,687,322 to Deaton et al or 5,380,991 to Valencia et al) taken either individually or in combination with other prior art of record fails to teach or suggest determining a first and second discount wherein the specific allowable feature is determining a second discount based on whether a first difference between the time of the current transaction and the time of the previous purchase is less than a predetermined minimum transaction period and whether a second difference between the time of the current transaction and the time of the first discount is greater than a predetermined discount adjustment period. This specific feature is not suggested in the prior art and distinguishes the present invention over the prior art. Claims 100-107 are dependent upon claim 99 and thus have all the limitations of claim 99 and are allowable for that reason.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
